1	Was sort of expensive but the arrival time and departure time in Santo Domingo were very good.	7/1/2019 6:53 PM
2	The cost is very high.	6/29/2019 9:01 PM
3	Much less expensive from Atlanta but Atlanta is a harder airport to negotiate.	6/29/2019 11:49 AM
4	Expensive this year, don't love the drive to Atlanta, don't have a better idea.	6/29/2019 11:01 AM
5	Long day but at Campamento in time for dinner	6/29/2019 10:37 AM
6	I liked not having to drive to and from Atlanta and the Valdosta flight was more convenient	6/28/2019 12:02 PM
7	I have heard of previous trip routes, but this works well for me and while through the busiest airport in the world (ATL), it seems to go quite smoothly.	6/28/2019 2:52 AM

1	I enjoyed my stay thoroughly at the Campamento, and found all amenities to be excellent.	7/2/2019 12:50 PM
2	By Dominican standards, it is excellent. However, the heat at night made it really hard to sleep.	7/1/2019 6:45 PM
3	Bathrooms need some attention (Showers, toilets).	6/29/2019 9:01 PM
4	It has come such a long way. Fans were great addition. Excellent in terms of cleanliness, view, space. Screened in porch would help with bugs but hurt the view, so bug spray wins. Central air and heat would make it excellent, but is ridiculous idea. Money better spent elsewhere.	6/29/2019 11:49 AM
5	Other than the heat, our accommodations are all we might desire. Semi private room and bath, comfortable beds with linens, and wonderful together space. Fans a real plus.	6/29/2019 11:01 AM
6	Fans kept us comfortable all but last night. Water pressure weak but adequate. Rooms and beds were clean. Trash cans emptied daily	6/29/2019 10:37 AM
7	I have nothing to complain about, the accommodations were wonderful and I'd stay there any time	6/28/2019 12:02 PM

2	I enjoyed all meals prepared.	7/2/2019 12:50 PM
3	Tomasina is the best!	7/1/2019 6:53 PM
4	They do not salt their food as heavily as Americans do. For those drinking primarily water to prevent dehydration (as opposed to coke, sprite, etc.)and taking antihypertensives for high blood pressure, salty snacks or Gatorade is probably a wise idea.	6/29/2019 11:49 AM
5	Simple, clean, nourishing. Grateful for this hospitality.	6/29/2019 11:01 AM
6	Always enough variety to allow choices. Plenty of food to fuel and refuel us for and from the work we needed to do	6/29/2019 10:37 AM
7	I loved trying new delicious foods	6/28/2019 12:02 PM

Q8 We had six major projects on this trip: building and painting a bedroom, painting classroom murals, teaching sewing, examining and treating dogs, conducting the "teen team" activities, and sponsoring the "splash party" for the children. Too many? Not enough? Please comment (100 characters).

5	The vets had to work overtime but got it done.	7/1/2019 6:53 PM
6	We used everyone's talents. Some of us found talents we didn't know we had!	7/1/2019 6:45 PM
7	The construction crew seem to have finished early. I believe they could have built the whole bedroom in the four days.	6/29/2019 9:01 PM
8	I think we could've worked harder but given the nuances of the village, it was nice to complete everything we set out to do.	6/29/2019 11:49 AM
9	Just right. A good mix. Dog treatment a singular gift to Jacqueline, a privilege to serve.	6/29/2019 11:01 AM
10	Perfect and all accomplished	6/29/2019 10:37 AM
11	I liked having so many projects because we were able to help a lot of people and effectively utilize the skills of all the team members	6/28/2019 12:02 PM
12	I understand that the painting teams may have felt like their projects were finished quickly, but I know that the vaccination project was labor intensive. I also absolutely love that we provide a Splash party, it's such a blast.	6/28/2019 2:52 AM

1	Could have used another day very well but then again I wanted to get home also. A tradeoff no matter how much time we spend there.	7/1/2019 6:53 PM
2	I could easily spend two full days exploring ruins, churches, forts, window shopping etc.	6/29/2019 11:49 AM
3	More than enough for a veteran visitor.	6/29/2019 11:01 AM
4	Time to chill and people watch as most of us wanted to do. Also time to explore old buildings, history, chocolate. Any more might be too long for missionaries ready to get home	6/29/2019 10:37 AM
5	Since we are there in a mission trip and not as tourists, I feel like we had more than enough time to explore Santo Domingo while also being effective with our projects in el pedregal	6/28/2019 12:02 PM

2	Julius, your and Julia's ability to communicate with our hosts, taxi drivers, and others along the way is what makes this trip so seamless.	6/29/2019 11:49 AM
3	Glad for kids' cleanup in village. Should be a school activity regularly.	6/29/2019 11:01 AM
4	Good to have translators available—Leidy, Jeanette and David were excellent and fully a part of the mission team.	6/29/2019 10:37 AM
5	If possible, I think it would be fun to have more time to spend with the villagers/children. For example, since most of our projects finished by 4:00, allowing the children to come in and play volleyball or soccer for an hour would be fun	6/28/2019 12:02 PM
