Facilities Committee Presents Master Plan

Strengthen Your Stakes

Enlarge the site of your tent, and let the curtains of your habitation be stretched out; do not hold back, lengthen your cords and strengthen your stakes, for you will spread out to the right and to the left. Isaiah 54

After two-and-a-half years of study, prayer, and research, the Facilities Committee of Christ Episcopal Church presented the Master Plan to an audience of over 75 on Wednesday, November 11. Members of the committee are Clinton Beeland, Tom Carroll, Bill Nunn, Maggie Roberts, Anne Singletary, Joe Tomberlin, and Al Turner. The visual presentation, accompanied by handouts, detailed the history of the project from 2007 to 2009, the future plans, a description of what changed based on church members' input, the preliminary architectural drawings of Phases 1A, 1B, and 2, a description of what the church will have that it does not have now, planned enhancements, and estimated cost. Brad Burnette and Stephani Carroll spoke to the group about what Christ Church means in their lives and the need for improved facilities. Clint Beeland and Tom Carroll presented the plan. They answered questions at the end of the presentation and invited those attending to view enlarged reproductions of the drawings on easels in the parish hall. The presentation was given again on Sunday, November 15, to 35 people after the 9:30 a.m. service.

THOUGHTS ABOUT ADVENT

I must confess that Advent may well be my favorite season. It's not just that I enjoy the changes to the worship services, the purple vestments and hangings, although that probably is part of it. I think it has more to do with mood. To me the season is one of preparation and anticipation. Of course, we all know that the calm colors and sounds of Advent will lead, each year, to the bright excitement of the Feast of the Incarnation, Christmas. The stunning truth that our God would accept our human condition, be one of us in His Incarnation, demands some preparation. If we fail to take these few weeks to reflect on the magnitude of His love, we will probably miss the point of Christmas. That is a truth that the Episcopal Church, and others, have maintained in the midst of all the secular, commercial customs of the season. It is one of our great strengths that, in the midst of all distraction, we do not lose sight of whose day we celebrate. We take these four weeks of Advent to hear, each year, the story of the preparation of the world for the birth of its savior, the story of a prophet by the Jordan and of a young girl selected by God to bear the infant Jesus. We sing powerful hymns that speak of these marvelous events. Our Advent services begin with us lighting the candles of the Advent wreath, one candle for each week marking the passage of the time of preparation, and we carry that custom with us as we light Advent wreathes at home. I invite you to take part in this Advent Season fully, and I promise that the lights and sounds of the proclamation of the birth of Our Lord will be ever brighter.

New Vestry Members Elected

Members of Christ Episcopal Church elected five new members to a three-year term on the Vestry in November. Those elected were Julia Ariail, Susan Elliott, Philip Gunter, Aaron Parten, and Joe Tomberlin. The term of office officially begins in January, 2010. Current Vestry members who complete their terms at the end of December are Tom Carroll, Sandra Fletcher, Pepi Nelson, Bill Nunn, and Al Turner. Thank you for your dedicated service to help fulfill the mission of our church.

Butterfly Day At St. Marks

Orange and black butterflies fluttered in the blue sky breeze at the annual Butterfly Day celebration at St. Marks, Florida, on October 24th. Twenty members of Christ Church and their friends enjoyed a picnic lunch and an unusual sighting of over 300 white pelicans soaring and circling in the sky above the picnic area. See photos of the day at: <http://picasaweb.google.com/christchurchvaldosta/20091024StMarks#>.

James Lawrence Elliott ordained as Deacon

On a beautiful, cool November day, James Lawrence Elliott joined the ranks of the Sacred Order of Deacons. Ordained by Bishop Henry I. Louttit, Jr. at an 11 a.m. service at Christ Episcopal Church on November 7, 2009, Jim reached this stepping stone in his life after many years of study, prayer, and reflection.

Jim has been a parishioner at Christ Church since 1995 and continues to attend church here with his wife Susan and children Gus, Alex, and Carter, all of whom participated in the service. His parents, brother and sister-in-law, their children, and Susan's parents were present at the ordination to add their support to his ministry. He will be serving the Bishop of the Diocese of Georgia from Christ Episcopal Church as he continues his work as a lawyer. He also serves as the Chancellor of the diocese.

A Christmas Carol, Being a Ghost Story of Christmas.

By Charles Dickens.

For Advent, I am (re)reading A Christmas Carol. Looking past Scrooge's "Bah, Humbug," the fat goose, and flaming plum pudding, we find a host of thought-provoking images. Marley shows Scrooge ghosts bound in chains of their earthly selfishness, grieving because they can no longer help the ragged woman sheltering a baby, a veritable Madonna and child. There's more: the Spirit of Christmas Present introduces Scrooge to a boy and a girl, "yellow, meagre, ragged, scowling." They are Ignorance and Want, say the Spirit; the children of men and the fruit of Scrooge's outlook.

What Scrooge need learn from his nephew Fred is this: "I have always thought of Christmas time . . . apart from the veneration due to its sacred name and origin, if anything belonging to it can be apart from that — as a good time; a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time: the only time I know of . . . when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely, and to think of people below them as if they really were fellow-passengers to the grave, and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys." It is the verse that heralds the vision of Tiny Tim's death — "And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them" — that is the keynote of the Carol philosophy and the heart of our Advent meditation.

Farewell Events for Bishop Louttit

Mark your calendars for Friday, December 4, for Bishop Louttit's Retirement Dinner at 6 p.m. at the Jekyll Island Convention Center and the Saturday, December 5, Retirement Eucharist at Honey Creek followed by a picnic. For December 4 reservations call the diocesan office at (912) 236-4279 or go to the diocesan Website at <http://georgia.anglican.org>.

Birdwatching at St. Marks on New Year's Day

Make plans to join the bird watching group at St. Marks National Wildlife Preserve. Cars will leave the church parking lot at 8 a.m. The group enjoys a picnic at noon at the Tower Pond picnic area. Several expert birders usually attend, including Bishop Henry and Jan Louttit. Call Phyllis Hiers for information at 244-5942 and view photos from last year's trip at: <http://picasaweb.google.com/christchurchvaldosta/20090101StMarks#>.

New Alarm System Installed

By necessity, we have installed a new alarm system at the church. If you have not been given a tutorial and pass code, please don't enter the buildings during "non working hours." During working hours, check with the office to make sure that other areas aren't "armed." If you need to get in and no one is on the campus, please contact Fr. Ingeman or Molly at 242-5115.

Thanksgiving at Advent

Dear brothers and sisters at Christ Church,

I meant to send this message in the November issue but missed the deadline. But since the giving of thanks is a good thing during any season, please receive it now. It is with great appreciation that I thank all of you who faithfully prayed for me during my 3-year illness of mind and spirit. As some of you know, I had a remarkable recovery on the morning of May 22nd of this year. Your prayers were answered far and above what any of us would have imagined. What I experienced and continue to experience can only be attributed to the mercy and power of our Almighty God. To Him be all the praise and glory through Christ our Lord. Amen.

As we light the Advent Wreath, may all of us be rekindled with a renewed zeal to worship and serve our Lord in spirit and in truth.

"My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior." Luke 1: 46-47

In Christ's peace, Maria Taylor

Jan Carter and Bobbi Ann Mitchell

Many thanks to those who helped make the Bishop's reception such a success, especially Bonnie Hanson, Bobbi Ann Mitchell, Jerry Byrd, Eloise Smith, Susan Elliott, Gail Hobgood, Phyllis Holland, Norma Barnidge, Aleta Corley, Irene Dodd, Willa Valencia, Amy Terrell, and other members of the Hospitality Committee.

CJB Industries Inc. named Manufacturer of the Year

The Valdosta-Lowndes County Chamber of Commerce named CJB Industries the 2009 Manufacturer of the Year at the recent Salute to Manufacturers breakfast held Thursday, November 12. Clinton and Jeana Beeland, members of Christ Episcopal Church, are owners of CJB Industries, Inc., a 12-year-old custom chemical formulating, processing, and packaging company.

Jeana was recently re-elected to a second term on the Valdosta City School Board of Education.

Christ Church Volunteers at Habitat For Humanity

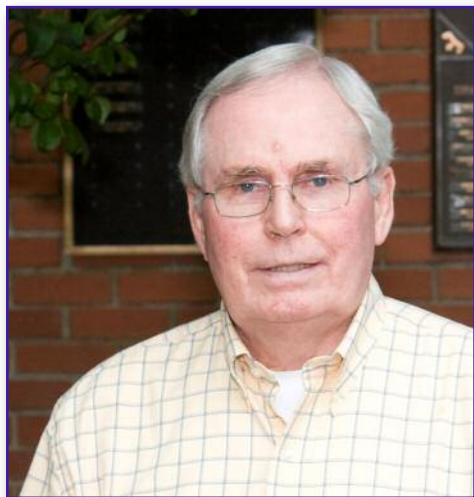

photographs by Phyllis Hiers, Sara MacArthur, and Julius Ariail

Habitat for Humanity built 2 houses in Valdosta between November 14 - 21, at 203 and 205 Perkins Lane. Christ Episcopal Church members volunteered for various jobs.

Christ Church Looks Back

by Joseph A. Tomberlin

December's historical article continues to describe Christ Church's labors to obtain $16,000 from the American Church Building Fund Commission for new Sunday School rooms. Notified by Richard P. Kent, Jr., Secretary of the A.C.B.F.C., on June 24, 1952, that the earliest possible date for the desired loan was April 30, 1953, Vestry Clerk Robert G. Macks quickly responded by Western Union telegram, dated July 27, 1952: "Informal discussion indicates immediate grateful acceptance your proposal. Regular Vestry meeting scheduled July 6th with formal advices following immediately."

Macks wrote Kent more formally the same day to report that the previous night the Vicar, Fr. Clifton H. White, had brought Kent's letter to Macks's house, where both had read it "with much pleasure." During that evening, Macks also had relayed "the good news" to Glen Robinson and James D. Carroll, the Senior Warden and the Junior Warden, and to Mr. Fry, the Treasurer. Because several vestrymen were out of town, having a quorum at a called meeting was unlikely. Therefore, Vestry would deal with the loan offer during the regular meeting of July 6th. Macks declared that he felt confident "the Vestry will immediately accept the aid offered by the Commission. . . ."

Kent acknowledged both the telegram and the letter from Christ Church on June 30, 1952, by affirming that "we understand . . . your notice cannot be official until the Vestry has acted at its meeting . . . [on] July 6th. We . . . look forward to receiving notice of the Vestry's official approval and acceptance." Vestry met, as scheduled, on the sixth, listened to Macks's reading of the exchange of correspondence with Kent, and approved a Fry-Roddey motion to instruct the Clerk "to write the Commission and to accept their tentative offer of $16,000." Macks duly related the Vestry's action to Kent via a letter on July 7, 1952, and Kent acknowledged having received it on July 10th.

Unexpectedly, on October 3rd, Kent sent a missive to Macks that moved forward the earliest date for the loan from April 30, 1953, to January 31, 1953, "subject, of course, to the conditions set forth in our letter of June 24th, 1952." Macks was unable to reply until October 18th, because, as he explained, "The letter was inadvertently misplaced at the Rectory and only received by me last night [October 17th]." He thanked Kent for the excellent news and stated, "At the earliest possible moment, the matter will be brought up for full consideration, and I trust to be able to give you further news with slight delay."

What went unsaid was that vestrymen already had considered Kent's letter the night before without taking any action except to ask Macks to discuss the loan situation with Bishop Barnwell later in the evening "and report back to the Vestry." Nor did Macks tell Kent that Vestry would have a called meeting on Sunday, October 19th, 1952, to hear Barnwell's advice. At the Sunday evening assembly, Macks made clear that "the Bishop did not look with any particular favor on our desire to effect a loan through the Amer. Church Bldg. Fund . . . and that he felt we should strengthen our financial position before attempting any further expansion." In view of Barnwell's attitude, vestrymen agreed to a motion for the Clerk to express "our thanks and appreciation" to the A.C.B.F.C. and to seek "a postponement of at least a year."

Thus, it becomes necessary to weave a new thread into the story's fabric that will provide a possible explanation of the Bishop's restraining the Vestry when it was on the verge of success. That is the task of the next episode, forthcoming in the January 2010 issue of The Vineyard.

Corn Maze Delights All Ages

On October 21st, The Christ Church youth and chaperones spent a few hours lost in the Corn Maze. This annual trip is always more fun than the previous year. On the second trip through the maze, the High School kids hid in the maze and spooked the middle schoolers. The younger group went on a hay ride and bounced in the giant bouncy house. We ended the night with s'mores and juice boxes. It is definitely fun to be involved in the church youth programs!

Garage Sale Items Needed

The High School students will be having a garage sale on December 5th to help offset the Ski Trip costs. A portion of the money will be donated to a worthy cause yet to be designated. Please bring your items to the church office or place them on the porch at Louttit Hall. If you drop them off, please let me know so that I can bring them inside. (bethbaker@bellsouth.net or 251-1143).

Children's Christmas Party, December 23rd, 9am-12:30pm

Please make plans to drop off your little (or big) kids for the 2nd Annual Christ Church Children's Christmas Party! Dress in your most comfy PJ's, bring a pillow and blankie and be ready to have TONS of fun. We will be making a craft, baking cookies, listening to stories (read by a few guest speakers), watching a movie and eating pizza! We are going to try to cram all this fun into a few hours! Best of all, moms and dads can have a few hours to do those last minute things! ***Children must be potty trained***

The Corn Maze

text and photographs by Phyllis Hiers

The Christ Church youth groups invited their friends for an evening of fall fun on the crisp evening of October 21. A crescent moon hung over the cornfield as they all explored a corn maze, roasted marshmallows, and enjoyed a hay ride. Afterward, younger children laughed their way through a dark bounce house while older youth bravely toured a haunted maze.
